LOCAL INTELLIBENCE.

ABTISTIC SEILL.-Yesterday we paid a visit to the photograph gallery of Messrs. Satterley & Fox, three doors above the State Bank, up stairs, and although we were prepared to view very creditable work in the photographic line, we scarce ly hoped to meet with such a dezzling display of Messrs. S. & F.'s artistic skill. One would hardly expect to find that such handsome work was being done daily in a locality so far from railroad centers and business marts; but to see is to believe, and those who desire an ocular demonstration of the facts herein tated can call at the gallery and by ocular demonstration of the facts herein stated, can call at the gallery and be convinced. In none of the first-class gallaries in San Francisco have we ever seen work which surpassed that of Sutterley & Fox in exactness of likeness and excellence of finish. Their photographs of various well known citizens will afford undubitable proofs of their ability in that line. Their life-size photographs, painted in oil and retouched in Indiaink, are superb and unsurpassable. Those of Mr. Sutterley and wife and that of our fellow townsman P. H. Ward will particularly attract attention. Old pic-Those of Mr. Sateries and P. H. Ward will particularly attract attention. Old pictures (considered valuable on account of by-gone associations) are copied, retouched and colored in oil, or inserted in lockets. Among the gems of their gallery are the fine imperial parlor pictures which would be ornaments in the palace of a prince. Childrens pictures are a specialty, and are taken in one second. It is really a treat to examine the splendid specimens of one of the finest of arts which are to be seen in the gallery of Sutterley & Fox. We are glad to see that the skill of these gentlemen and the excellence of their work meets with favor among our people. We predict for them great success.

John Bolson, whose dangerous illness

John Bolson, whose dangerous illness was mentioned in our previous issue, died yesterday morning between 12 and 1 o'clock. We were reliably informed vesterday that he had not, as previously stated, been alone and unattended dur ing two or three days, but received attention from his friends before he was taken into Mr. Daugherty's house, where he was attended by Dr. Deal and was cared was attended by Dr. Deal and was cared for with every kindness. He never spoke clearly or intelligibly from 2 o'clock on Monday morning, and continued delirious until death put an end to his sufferings. Deceased came to Pioche from Montana two years ago, and from those who knew him in life we learn that he lived previously in Missouri and in Kansas. He is believed to have been born at Pittsburg, Pa., but of this nothing certain is known. His remains were consigned to the silent tomb yesterday afternoon. The disease of which he died was pneumonia. He was about 45 years old.

CHRISTMAS COMING.—But a little time will elapse ere the Christmas holidays will begin. Already have preparations been inaugurated for the observance o festivities on the occasion. Several of our advertisers set forth that they are prepared to sell holiday presents of various kinds, including a variety of toys and such articles as are particularly pleasing to the children. On Christmas Eve the ever-memorable Christmas Tree will gladden the hearts of the little ones who choose to meet at the Episcopal Church, on Cedar street. The night following Christmas the Masons of Pioche give a grand ball at Brown's Hall. We expect to see a flow of Tom and Jerry, eggnogg, and other hot drinks at the different saloons in Pioche. Doubtless other modes of making Christmas another modes of making Christmas and christmas prepared to sell holiday presents of variother modes of making Christmas ap-propriately merry, but no plans which may have been perfected have been re-ported to us as yet.

PRICES OF MILE.-Three of the principal milk venders in this neighborhood have entered into an agreement whereby the prices of milk from this time until the 1st of May will be at the rate of $1 per gallon for any quantity not exceeding one quart; 75 cents a gallon when sold in any quantity equal or exceeding a half gallon. After the 1st of May prices will be reduced from $1 to 75 cents in the first instance and from 75 to 50 cents in in the second. The reason assigned, and which seems not unreasonable, is the scarcity of feed for cows and the extra care required to be taken of them during the rigor of Winter.

the scarcity of feed for cows and the extra care required to be taken of them during the rigor of Winter.

Selling Out, and No Mistake.—Ike Phillips, whose supply of groceries, provisions, canned goods, etc., is equal to the best in town, has determined to sell out his immense stock. His prices are so reasonable that those who examine his goods cannot fail to make a purchase. People are not asked to rely upon a mere statement of what he proposes to do, but he invites all who possess coin which they are willing to exchange for goods in his line to call and see for themselves. This is to be a bona fide sale, and no mistake. Remember the place—three doors above the State Bank of Nevada, Main street.

Auction Sale Postfonked—The sale of a stock of wines and liquors, including ale in casks, foreign and domestic wines, COURT PROCEEDINGS .- Yesterday and the day before the District Court was occupied in the trial of the case of J. J. decupied in the trial of the case of J. J. Halpin vs. P. E. Connor. Yesterday the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $944.30. The case of Connor vs. Halpin will probably be dismissed. In the case of John A. Steele vs. H. Lewis a jury was being impaneled when our report closed.

CHRISTMAN TREE.-H. S. Sherwood is now soliciting funds to defray the expenses of a Christmas tree for the children, which will be erected at the Episcopal Church on Christmas Eve. All are invited to contribute, as all the children of the town will be welcome to attend at the church on that evening and participate in the festivities.

WEATHER.-Yesterday was a raw and disagreeable day, with strong indications of rain or snow. The snow is gradually melting away, and a warm rain, which is liable to come, would sweep it all away at once. P. S. About 6 o'clock snow began to fall again.

For Salt Laxe.-A stage for Salt Lake rolled out yesterday at 1 o'clock p. m., whistle time. There were five pas-

XMAS PRESENTS.—Three thousand dollars worth of goods suitable for Christmas gifts, consisting of oil paintings, albums, wall pockets, mechanical and other toys, are now on sale at H. Ward's furniture ware-rooms. All the above articles remaining unsold on Dec. 24th, will be disposed of at public auction, together with several handsome sets of furniture on the evening of that day (24th.) Auction to commence at 6 p. m. de16-td.

HOLIDY PRESENTS.-P. Heitzelman ha received for the holidays a large assortment of diamonds, jewelry and silver-ware, which he will sell cheaper than any house in town. Call and examine. d12-1m
